Learning outcomes

The qualification holder will be able to:

- incorporate ethical values into decisions,
- effectively exploit available capacities, which includes exploiting their own capacities, especially creativity, and exploiting the potential of colleagues (intellectual capacities), material and other capacities (money, equipment, space and time),
- understand the importance of implementing the principle “a good decision is an ethical decision” in making decisions, regardless of the level of decision-making, the type of decision and type of organisation in which decisions are being made,
- understand the principle that in business decisions there is a need to observe the principle of equality of all those affected by the decision,
- show autonomy in professional work,
- demonstrate familiarity with processes associated with the activities of the organisation in the analytical, legal, organisational and other fields in the commercial, financial and public sectors (interdisciplinary aspect),
- use modern information technology and available databases in Slovenia and around the world, along with modern quantitative (including the use of mathematical models) and qualitative methods in analysing and planning operations,
- present acquired knowledge within and outside the organisation and in the international environment (communication abilities and skills),
- recognise, monitor and analyse legal and other solutions and relevant economic trends in the local and global environment, especially in Europe, and plan measures to adapt the organisation to such trends,
- demonstrate cooperativeness and work in a group (including in an international environment).

Assessment and completion

Students' knowledge is assessed by means of practical exercises and seminar papers, and also via products, projects, performances, services, etc. and by examinations. Examination performance is graded as follows: 10 (excellent); 9 (very good: above-average knowledge but with some mistakes); 8 (very good: solid results); 7 (good); 6 (adequate: knowledge satisfies minimum criteria); 5–1 (inadequate). In order to pass an examination, a candidate must achieve a grade between adequate (6) and excellent (10).

Progression

Students must complete course units from the first year totalling 45 credits to progress to the second year. Students may progress to the third year upon completion of all first-year course units plus second-year course units totalling 45 credits.

Transitions

Second-cycle master's study programmes (SQF level 8)

Condition for obtaining certificate

All requirements prescribed in the programme must be met and a diploma thesis successfully presented, yielding a total of 180 credits, for the completion of studies.
