Learning outcomes

Qualification holders will be able to formulate a recognisable personal language, research expressive and technological innovations and, in this context, make creative use of colours, paper and printing. Knowledge regarding the primary treatment of a drawing will have been enhanced by a tendency towards creative and high-quality re-evaluation. In synthesis with the selected visual values of the creative environment, printmaking is placed in a new logical connection with the tradition of modernism.

Assessment and completion

Examination performance is graded as follows: 10 (excellent); 9 (very good: above-average knowledge but with some mistakes); 8 (very good: solid results); 7 (good); 6 (adequate: knowledge satisfies minimum criteria); 5–1 (inadequate). In order to pass an examination, a candidate must achieve a grade between adequate (6) and excellent (10).

Progression

Candidates may enrol in the second year when they have completed course units totalling at least 45 credits.

Transitions
