Learning outcomes

Graduates will be familiar with the fields of visual culture in the broadest sense of the word and with various theoretical focuses and cultural trends, in particular in the field of visual culture, which is increasingly becoming not only the globally most present and uniform form of culture, but also the locally most distinctive form. They will also be familiar with the principle modern philosophical and other theories connected with visual culture and visual representation.

Assessment and completion

Examination performance is graded as follows: 10 (excellent); 9 (very good: above-average knowledge but with some mistakes); 8 (very good: solid results); 7 (good); 6 (adequate: knowledge satisfies minimum criteria); 5–1 (inadequate). In order to pass an examination, a candidate must achieve a grade between adequate (6) and excellent (10).

Progression

Students may enrol in the second year when they have completed first-year course units totalling at least 45 credits. Course units for individual subjects are defined by the syllabuses.

Transitions
